

NOTICE OF REFUSAL FOR FRAUD
(cf. "Fraud" in Black's Law Dictionary)

TO: Kevin Krebs as Assistant Director
Executive Office for U.S. Attorneys
600 "E" Street, N.W., Suite 7300 BICN
Washington 20530
District of Columbia, USA

FROM: Paul Andrew Mitchell, B.A., M.S.

DATE: February 21, 2017 A.D.

SUBJECT: credentials required by 5 U.S.C. 2906, 3331, 3332, 3333
your "Request Number: FOIA-2017-01111"

Mr. Krebs:

Your letter dated February 7, 2017 is hereby refused for reasons including but not limited to fraud and all of the following:

- (1) My FOIA Request dated December 9, 2016 A.D. does not involve "many voluminous records": a proper response should disclose two(2), maybe three (3) pages at most;
- (2) My FOIA Request dated December 9, 2016 A.D. does not require consultation with another agency/component, because 5 U.S.C. 2906 designates your offices as the legal custodian of the requested APPOINTMENT AFFIDAVITS required of Mr. Monty Wilkinson;
- (3) My FOIA Request dated December 9, 2016 A.D. should not be "assigned to the complex track" because doing so attempts to obscure the fact that your office failed timely to assign a unique Request Number;
- (4) My FOIA Request dated December 9, 2016 A.D. was mailed via first class U.S. Mail on or about that date, therefore your claim that it was received on January 10, 2017 is hereby specifically denied as false and misleading (see enclosed PROOF OF SERVICE); and,
- (5) the scope of my FOIA Request dated December 9, 2016 A.D. does not need to be modified or narrowed, because it is already sufficiently specific, as demonstrated by numerous historical replies we have received from DOJ's Office of Information Policy.

If you simply can't resist signing your name to pages upon pages of smelly horse manure, kindly find someone else who is either sufficiently stupid or ignorant enough not to know any better.

But, when you are being paid by a demonstrably corrupt organization, aiding and abetting the protection racket brilliantly described by Paul Craig Roberts in his essay entitled "The Justice System is Criminal," it is painfully obvious why applicable laws make absolutely no difference to your day-to-day behavior and habitual bureaucratic machinations.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Paul Andrew Mitchell
