

George W. Bush

President of the United States of America;

To all who shall see these Presents, Greeting:

Know Ye, That, repairing special trust and confidence in the Wisdom, Uprightness, and Learning of Frederick J. Mastone, of Arizona, I have nominated, and, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, do appoint him United States District Judge for the District of Arizona, and do authorize, and empower him to execute, and fulfil the duties of that Office, according to the Constitution, and Laws of the said United States, and to Have, and to Hold, the said Office, with all the powers, privileges, and emoluments to the same of right appertaining, unto him, the said Frederick J. Mastone, during his good behavior.

In testimony whereof, I have caused these Letters to be made public, and the seal of the Department of Justice to be hereunto affixed. Done at the City of Washington, this twenty-fourth day of December, in the year of our Lord, two thousand, one, and of the Independence of the United States, of America, the tenth hundred, and twenty-sixth.

By the President:

Gen. C. M. Evans
Attorney General

File

Senate of the United States
